

Iowa Governor's STEM Advisory Council
Guidelines for

STEM BEST® Program
Businesses Engaging Students and Teachers

Professional Development (PD)

Professional development for the STEM BEST® Program model should encourage and offer opportunities for business and education professionals to work together in an interdisciplinary, community-driven and problem-based approach. Professional development must include both business partner support in working with youth, as well as educator support in linking industry needs to program content.